A student is more than someone
 Who walks down the hall with a bundle of books.
 He is an individual,
 An individual who competes, debates and makes decisions
 A student who learns from more than just books.

The language of friendship is not words
but meanings,
It is an intelligence above language.

—Thoreau

Kelly Hertig will be hostess at this years Miss Oregon Pageant , and will be very busy throughout the summer carrying out her duties as " Miss Seaside!" She plans to go to Oregon State and will live in a dorm with a few old friends. " Stop in if you're in Corvallis."

Pam Comstock is going to Finland this August as a Foreign Exchange Student representing Seaside High.

Pam was born in Portland, Oregon and moved here at the age of four. She has attended Seaside School's for 10yrs.

Her future plans are to either go to OCE or U of O majoring in Education or Social Services.

EACH OF MY FACES HAS ITS OWN DIRECTION
 FOR EACH DIRECTION, NEW IDEAS FORM.
 IF IT'S VISIBLE, REWARD IT,
 IF IT'S INNER, LET IT BE:
 BUT IN ANY CASE,
 THE CHOOSING MUST BE MINE AND MUST STAY FREE.

NEAL SUNDQUIST

John Hartman seems to have in mind, a world wide surf excursion. His area range is from Seaside, Oregon(USA) to the mind bending New Zealand. John doesn't have any definite plans for college, but he is searching for the one that seems to fit his taste. (Mt. Hood Com. college might be it)

Marrianne Baty ambition is to lead a sucessful, enjoyable and happy life.

She enjoys snow skiing, they call her Grace on the ski slop.

Marrianne doesn't really know what the future holds for her but Oregon State sound pertty good.

Steve Kraske hopes to someday become a Medical Lab. Technician. He plans to go to schood in Guam this next winter, and also hopes to get a job in a hospital there.

Since the surf and the weathe are just right Steve intends to surf while in Guam then travel to Hawaii the following summer

foreign exchange

Cho Jean Kim who is from Korea is planning to become a teacher and spent the past year at Seaside bettering her English. Pekka Ehola was our official exchange student from Finland. He hopes some day to become a doctor and plans to continue his photography as a hobby. Although very quiet, Pekka did more than his share to make this one of Seaside's best years for accomplishments.

HOMECOM

Humorous appenings ighlight omecoming

Queen Cheryl Chestnut and Princesses Kelly Hertig and Holly Hoyer reigned over the 1970 Homecoming Week. Activities this year included

Clash Day-teachers cleaning the seal, Dress-up Day-Dating game, Costume Day-Cakewalk, Grub Day-Pie throw, Red and White Day, serpentine, the bonfire, Homecoming game, and dance. This year two players, Jack Hartman and Steve Olson, shared the title of "King Football." The "United Flight" provided music at the Home-Coming Dance.

Dan Arb enjoys the scenery while Peter Ter Har, his date, and Sandra Schneider enjoy the surrounding atmosphere...

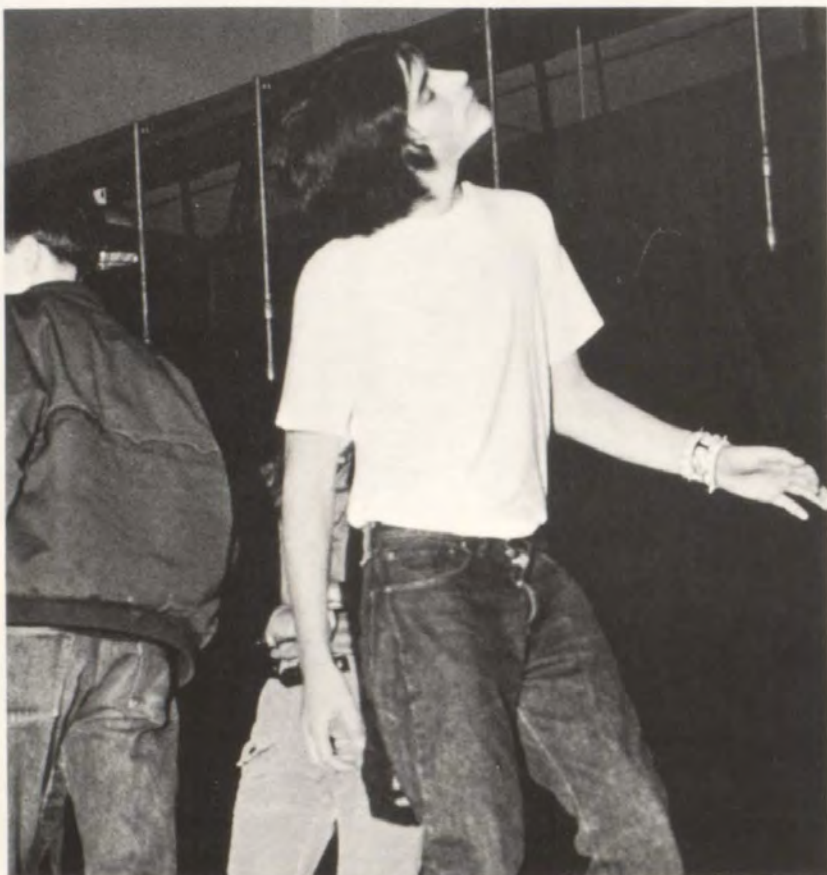

The Jr. Sr. Prom court were as follows: left to right-Senior Princesses were Diana Egbert, escorted by Tom Yantis; Sharon Baugh, escorted by Rick Blake; Queen Cheryl Chestnut, escorted by Pekka Erhola; Junior Princesses were: Susan Palmer, escorted by Tom Dye; and Lori Benson escorted by Kim Sandy.

This plush affair was described as the best Prom ever and according to its planners it had to be. Much time and money were spent preparing for this event which was attended by nearly 40 couples. The atmosphere of the Country Club was elegant, the only light being provided by candles on each table, accompanied by an arrangement of daffodiles. The music was provided by a Canadian band, The Krystal Ship and following the Prom a midnight steak dinner was catered in the dinning room.

pep dances were a success

It's freak out time.

The excitement of a pep dance!

Hey Gang!
Pass the this-away

Oh, My , I forgot to feed the cat!

So you said marriage is out of the question!

There were about five Pep Dances through the year. The bands were good but all in all we just need a few more of them! Our thanks go out to our great supervisors, Miss Sandberg, and Miss Clasuen, who attended each and every Pep Dance.

Students thoughts on Pep Dances:
Lynn Schneider - They Stink!
Susan Palmer - Needed more.
Dan Spillman - Wasn't enough.
Tim Davis - They were great!

What a feeling! Newly crowned state champion

Seaside Golf - 1971 State Champions of Oregon

The golfers of Seaside High School have won more than the State Championship trophy this year. They have won the respect of their fellow students and gained the knowledge of what dedication and long persevering effort can achieve. Unfaltering early morning and late evening practice before and after school tournaments was accomplished because of a team spirit seldom found in highly individualized sports such as golf. Learning how to pull together and help each other as these boys did is perhaps one of the greatest justifications for promoting and maintaining sports as a vital part of high school education.

Student body funds procured by spectator sports made it possible for the golfers to play various courses other than their home course of Gearheart. This practice in strategy is a must for any golf team aspiring to outstanding excellence. I have been proud to share in this teams spirit as golf coach the past four years and hope Seaside will continue to support High School sports.
